In the past few weeks, we have found out:

- >The Chinese military has been training in Canada, allegedly they had something to do with our F16 going down over the upper peninsula of Michigan last week.
- >The Pentagon was hacked along with many other government institutions this week. They are currently on a closed loop
- >Hunter Biden asked China's spy chief to wire $10 million to his account wishing him well from his father in the same email.

>There are three (that I know of) active DOJ investigations into the Biden family

>Swallow was banging Fang Fang, a Chinese spy who fled the country.

>Facebook spent $500 million on election infrastructure in 2020 via the Chan Zuckerberg Foundation. (Note who's name is first) The money came with clawback clauses for counties that didn't comply with their demands.

>Patrick Byrne tells his story of HRC bribery giving a detailed first person account.

>The machines used to count our votes were connected to the Internet and failed a simple audit in Michigan. Subpoenas have been issued for more machines in AZ, GA and MI.

>17 Republican Attorney Generals backed Trump in a failed election related law suit

>17 GOP House members ask Pelosi to remove Swalwell from the Intel Committee

>Cocaine Mitch endorses Biden the same day we find out he was the one who blocked two bills intended to ensure voting security in 2019 (regarding the two companies that make up 80% of Americas voting machines)

With a population firmly under the MSM's spell, doing so would have spelt disaster for Trump. Compared to 4 years ago, a massively larger number of people have woken up. 2020 has been like a red-pill IV.

Yeah and he waited 4 years to do this after he got fucked in the ass. He was already a russian puppet traitor to these people. He had nothing to lose by acting early.

Got a range IP ban yesterday for telling people to join Patriot Front, Proud Boy or any other organization, no matter if it glows or not

STRENGTH IN NUMBERS

At the important day, all these groups will join together.

10000 patriots are terrorists and can be subdued

5000000 patriots can not and will not be fired upon by law enforcement.

Join groups, DO NOT BE VIOLENT. We can not claim the high ground if we are as shitty as they are.

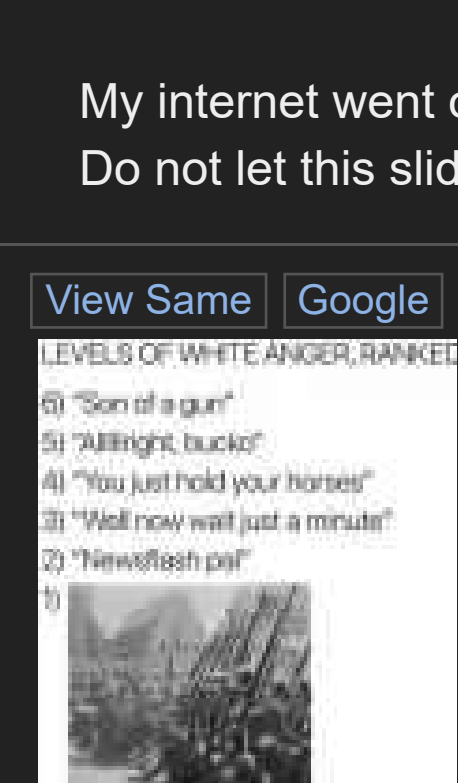

My internet went out for 10 minutes and after it came back, RANGE BAN.

Do not let this slide, ORGANIZE. Help each other!
